

You're Invited!
Citizens for Alternatives to Chemical Contamination
General Membership Meeting

<http://www.caccmi.org/>

"Working to Protect Our Environment Since 1978"

Sunday, June 13th, 2010      1 PM - 5 PM

Location: The Fireplace Room of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Greater Lansing - 855 Grove Street, East Lansing, Michigan

Lee Sprague, Tribal Council Member of Little River Band of Ottawa Indians, former Clean Energy Campaign Manager for Michigan Chapter of Sierra Club

To speak on:

"Environmental Justice and Building Coalitions to Protect the Great Lakes "

A potluck will be held at 1pm. Please bring a dish to pass. Light refreshments will be available.

CACC's General Membership meeting will begin at 1:30 p.m. sharp. This includes a report to our membership and election of the 2010-2011 CACC Board of Directors.

A silent auction will be held during the afternoon. Please bring items of interest, either new or gently used, for donation to CACC's silent auction. Come prepared to bid. There is something for everyone! Stas Yascolt, famed CACC Auctioneer (Pinconning's finest!) will lead the auction. Contact Gretchen Michaels at 248-628-7463 for any questions regarding auction items. All proceeds will support CACC's educational programs.

Victor McManemy, Great Lakes songwriter, historian, musician, will provide music.

For more information, contact Lucia at: <luca333@netscape.net>

CITIZENS FOR ALTERNATIVES TO CHEMICAL CONTAMINATION (CACC) is a grassroots environmental education and advocacy organization dedicated to the principles of social and environmental justice, pollution prevention, citizen empowerment, and protection of the Great Lakes Ecosystem. - CACC Vision Statement- Adopted January 14, 1996, by the CACC Board of Directors.